

MEMO TO: FILE NO. 10-61220

FROM: DENNIS MILLER

SUBJECT: SCOTT DAVIS

DATE: March 17, 1997

On March 14, 1997, Dennis Miller and Mark Kadish conducted re-interviews at Andersen Consulting with Bill Brown, Lee Spitalnick, and David Henry to confirm the information provided by them in their original interviews which were conducted on January 6, 1997. Henry and Spitalnick provided no new information not previously provided in their January 6 interviews.

Specifically, Lee Spitalnick indicated that he, David Henry and Roger Pollard met Scott outside of Angela Laughter's office at 10:00 AM. Spitalnick recalled their meeting lasted approximately 20 minutes. Spitalnick stated that Scott Davis told them in what office he was working from and at approximately 11:15 AM to 11:30 AM, Spitalnick and Henry went to the 27th floor to talk to Davis. Spitalnick indicated that when they approached Brown's office, they saw Davis inside working.

David Henry indicated that after the 10:00 AM meeting with Pollard, Spitalnick, and himself, he again met with Davis at approximately 11:30 AM. Both Henry and Spitalnick recalled that they went back to meet with Davis prior to lunch because Spitalnick wanted to get on an internet computer in the library and they knew if they waited until after lunch to meet with Davis, it would delay their getting on that computer.

Bill Brown recalled the same information provided on January 6; however, he was more specific and provided some additional information concerning his knowledge of Megan Davis and her "reputation." Brown indicated that he first met Megan in the spring; however, he was uncertain of what year. Brown stated he met Megan at a steeple chase event and that the reputation he had heard was that "when she drinks, she gets flirtatious." Brown stated that at the steeple chase event, the reputation proved to be true because she got drunk and became quite flirtatious. Brown indicated he began to know Megan a little bit better when he and his wife were assigned to the same crew during the Olympics and Scott and Megan Davis. Brown also recalled a project dinner that was held at Bones. According to Brown, Megan was not in attendance, but was at the Democratic National Convention. According to Brown, Davis told him Megan was "out late and partying every night." Brown recalled thinking, "she hasn't changed."

File No. 10-61220
Page 2
March 17, 1997

It was in the fall of 1996 that Brown recalled Davis first talking to him about a divorce. Brown recalled four or five meetings in late September that he had with Davis where Davis discussed his relationship with Megan and how it was affecting his work. Brown remembered Davis told him "it was difficult because they shared mutual friends."