Interview with Patricia Flavin
05-31-2006

On this date, I interviewed Patricia Flavin by telephone concerning the David Coffin Murder.

Ms. Flavin provided the following information:

- A. Flavin said that on the night of the fire, she and Craig Foster saw Coffin's house on the news, and went to Coffin's residence;
- B. Flavin said that when she and Foster arrived, Megan was already there and was sitting in a car (Flavin did not remember how Megan got to the scene;)
- C. Flavin said that the three of them were only outside Coffin's house for about fifteen minutes, and the only contact Flavin had or saw with Police or Fire Officials was in being told to get out of the way;
- D. Flavin said that Megan was upset, crying, and distraught;
- E. Flavin said that the trio then sat in a car before going to the neighbor's house where they only stayed for five to ten minutes;
- F. Flavin gave Megan a Valium before they went to the neighbor's house, just minutes before Megan made a phone call to Scott Davis;
- G. Flavin said that Megan called Scott on the neighbor's phone and said that "David was shot;"
- H. Flavin said that Megan did not tell Flavin what if any other contact Megan had made with Scott Davis or Police or Fire officials that evening;
- I. Flavin was not aware of allegations made by Scott Davis about being assaulted;
- J. Flavin said she went to Homicide and was questioned in a room by an unknown detective;

- K. Flavin said that Davis came into the Homicide Office in handcuffs, sat down next to her and said something to the effect of, "Hi, How's it going?" Flavin said she said met Davis at a party on one previous occasion, but did not know him;
- L. Flavin said that Scott Davis was calm, and collected;
- M. Flavin said that she has never subsequently spoken to Scott Davis;
- N. Flavin said that Megan spent that night at her house, and that Megan left early the next morning;
- O. Flavin said that several weeks before Coffin's murder, she was at a party at Coffin's house, and she and two friends were in a bathroom and heard and saw what she thought was someone in the bushes outside. Flavin said that when she reported this to the men, they did not take her seriously;
- P. Flavin said that she a Foster went to Coffin's house a day or two before the murder, for a brunch, and found the front door open and the house apparently burglarized. Flavin said she never saw Coffin again after that.

RE: David Coffin Death Investigation

On June 28, 1999, I received a telephone call from Ms. Gisela Linberger concerning the David Coffin death investigation. Ms. Linberger lives at 931 West Conway and was a neighbor of the victim. She was never interviewed by anyone from the Atlanta Police Department, and fortunately has some information about the victim and his friends. Ms. Linberger reports that she was interviewed by a Private Detective (Dennis Miller) from Huhn Association Inc., who represented the suspect, Scott Davis. Ms. Linberger is also familiar with Patricia Slavin, a friend of Coffin's who made statements to her concerning Davis' threats about what would happen to anyone who dated his wife. Ms. Linberger needs to be interviewed, and appears to be willing to cooperate with this investigation. The pertinent information related to the person she supplied are as follows:

*Dennis A. Miller

Investigator: J. S. RICHEY	Case Name: SCOTT DAVIS
Person Interviewed: PATRICIA SLAVIC	Date: 06-30-99
Place of Interview: 5246 MARSTON RD.
City: CHAMBLEE GA.:
Race: BLK	Dob:

On the above date at approx. 1415 hrs., this writer along with J. Strozier interviewed Patricia Slavic in reference to the David Coffin homicide. The interview took place inside of Ms. Slavic's home.

Ms. Slavic stated that on she met David Coffin and Craig Foster at the Tavern at Phipps on a blind date a couple of months before David was killed. Ms. Slavic stated that she began dating Craig and she met Megan Davis through Craig and David. Ms. Slavic stated that David and Craig were very close friends. Ms. Slavic stated approx. two to three weeks before the homicide, David had a dinner party at this house. Ms. Slavic stated that she invited a couple of her girlfriends to go with her (Ann Fitzgerald and Alison Crawford).

Ms. Slavic stated that she was there with Craig, and Megan was there with David. Ms. Slavic stated that he she along with her girlfriends went to the restroom to freshen up and they all three heard what appeared to be someone going through the bushes in the backyard. Ms. Slavic stated that all three of them became startled, but they did not think much about it later. Ms. Slavic stated that she was not sure if she told David about the noises or not. Ms. Slavic that while at the dinner party, she and Megan talked about the divorce she was going through with Scott Davis and that she was trying to be understanding because she had gone through the same thing. Ms. Slavic stated that Megan told her that she and Scott were separated and that Scott had been showing up at her apartment and continuously calling her. Ms. Slavic stated that they talked about it and that was it.

In reference to the homicide, Ms. Slavic stated that on the Sunday before David died, David called Craig and told him that his house had been broken into. Ms. Slavic stated that David was suppose to call him back so that they could go eat some where, but David never did. Ms. Slavic stated that she and Craig went over to David's house and found no one at home. Ms. Slavic stated that the front door was open so they went in and found the home to appear to have been burglarized because of all of the stuff all over the place. Ms. Slavic stated that she and Craig left the home and the next time they heard from David was

Monday and David told Craig that he and Megan went out to eat after he (David) called him about the burglary. Ms. Slavic stated that on the same day Craig and David were suppose to do lunch, but David never made it. Ms. Slavic stated that later that night she and Craig was watching the News and saw David's house on television burning. Ms. Slavic that she and Craig went immediately to the house and they met Clayton there. Ms. Slavic stated that Megan showed up and she was very hysterical. Ms. Slavic stated that they took Megan to a neighbor's house, Lindbergh's. Ms. Slavic stated that Craig came into the house also. Ms. Slavic stated that once into the house, Megan called Scott Davis stated the following: "Scott, David has been shot." Ms. Slavic stated that at the time no one knew about David being shot. Ms. Slavic stated that they left the Lindbergh's house and once inside of the jeep, she gave Megan a Valium to calm her down. Ms. Slavic stated that they all went down to the homicide office to give a statement.
